Pope Francis's Special Intentions for the month of October:

For a shared mission

We pray that the Church continue to sustain in all ways a Synodal lifestyle, as a sign of co-responsibility, promoting the participation, the communion and the mission shared among priests, religious and lay people.

© J. S. Falch Co., Inc.

PLEASE PRAY for

The peoples suffering of oppression and occupation, may they soon live in the peace that only God can give. For the recently departed †Johnny H. Herrera, †Arturo J. Rodriguez, may their soul rest in the Lord's peace. For those attending the Eucharistic Revival, may their faith be strengthened as they grow closer to the Eucharist. This we pray in the name of Jesus Christ.

Readings for the 29th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading – Isaiah 53:10-11: The LORD allowed the Suffering Servant to suffer for our sins. He will offer his life, see his descendants, fulfill the LORD's will, and justify many through his affliction and bearing their guilt.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 33: The Lord's word is reliable, and his works are trustworthy. He watches over those who fear him and hope for his kindness, rescuing them from death and sustaining them in famine.

Second Reading – Hebrews 4:14-16: Jesus, the Son of God, our great high priest, understands our weaknesses and temptations. Let us confidently approach God's throne for mercy and grace in our time of need.

Gospel – Mark 10:35-45: James and John asked Jesus for positions of honor. Jesus taught that true greatness comes from serving others, not from seeking power. He emphasized that he came to serve and give his life for many.

In today's Gospel, James and John ask to be given seats of honor when Jesus enters into his glory. Once again, the disciples seem to be selective in what they hear Jesus say. They want to share Jesus' glory, but do not appear to understand that his glory will be preceded by his suffering. Jesus notes their lack of understanding and predicts the suffering they will endure for the sake of the Gospel. Jesus says that the honor they seek is not his to give. When the other ten hear what James and John have asked, Mark reports that they are indignant. Jesus takes the opportunity to teach them.

Following Jesus' example of sacrificial love continues to be countercultural in our day as well. We might take this opportunity to consider our models of authority and examine our own exercise of authority. On whose example do we model our leadership?

Todo camino que no sea el seguido por Jesús queda fuera de opción para quienes quieran ser discípulos suyos, para su Iglesia. No se trata, pues, de una opción de libre elección. El seguimiento de Cristo Jesús, ser discípulos suyos, supone necesariamente una opción fundamental que es la del servicio, la de la participación, no sólo en su misión, sino también en el estilo de la misma.
