Immaculate Conception Church

The Solemnity of the MOST HOLY TRINITY

The Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, yet we do not speak of three Gods, but only one God. They have the same nature, substance, and being.

PRAYER / DIVINE READING

Pope Francis's Special Intentions for the month of May:

For the formation of religious and seminarians

We pray that religious women and men, and seminarians, grow in their own vocations through their human, pastoral, spiritual and community formation, leading them to be credible witnesses to the Gospel.

All the sick in our community, for the homebound and their caregivers.

For all our recently departed, and their families, especially †George Gallegos and †Beatrice Thomas.

For all the students who recently graduated, for discernment and wisdom in the decisions ahead of them.

The Sanctuary Candle

Burns to honor the presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament.

Readings for Trinity Sunday

First Reading - Deuteronomy 4:32-34, 39-40: Moses urges reflection on God's unique acts for Israel: speaking from fire, choosing them miraculously, and showing unmatched power. He emphasizes that the LORD is the only God and calls for obedience to ensure prosperity.

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 33: The Lord's word is true, His actions dependable, creating the heavens and earth with His command. He watches over and sustains those who revere Him and hope in His love.

Second Reading - Romans 8:14-17: As God's children, led by His Spirit, we're freed from fear, adopted, and can call Him "Father". This Spirit affirms our divine inheritance with Christ, linking suffering with shared glory.

Gospel - Matthew 28:16-20: On a Galilean mountain, the eleven disciples met Jesus as instructed. Despite some doubts, they worshipped Him. Jesus declared His divine authority and commanded them to make disciples of all nations, baptize them, and teach His commands, assuring His continual presence until the end of time.

The Gospel for Trinity Sunday takes us to a mountain in Galilee, where Jesus meets His disciples after His resurrection. Even though some doubted, they all worshiped Him. Here, Jesus gives them a great mission: to make disciples of all nations, baptize them, and teach them to follow His commands.

Jesus' command is a foundation for our mission as Christians. We are to share the good news with everyone, no matter where they are from. The task of baptizing and teaching is not just for the apostles but for all of us who follow Christ. Jesus also promises to be with us always, until the end of time. This assurance gives us the courage to carry out His commands.

Terminando el ciclo litúrgico del tiempo Pascual, retomamos el del Tiempo Ordinario, y lo hacemos en este quicio dominical entre ambos, final de uno y comienzo del otro, donde miramos con asombro y reverencia al centro de la Revelación Cristiana: el Dios que es Padre, Hijo y Espíritu Santo, tres personas y un solo Dios.

Si ciertamente tal Misterio de la Trinidad se muestra incapaz de agotarse a nuestra comprensión, nos abre, como el profundo Misterio que es, siempre a intuiciones que acompañan nuestra fe y nuestro vivir en cristiano: la dimensión relacional de la naturaleza humana reflejo de la divina; la centralidad contemplativa y asombrada de la mística que todo cristiano está llamado a vivir; las huellas en todo lo creado de las manos del Dios Trinitario; o la actitud de profunda reverencia y humildad ante un Dios al que sólo podemos acercarnos gracias a su propia Revelación de amor.
