PRAYER / DIVINE READING

Pope Francis's Special Intentions for the month of July:

For the pastoral care of the sick

We pray that the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick confer to those who receive it and their loved ones the power of the Lord and become ever more a visible sign of compassion and hope for all.

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

PLEASE PRAY for

The eternal repose of the soul of †Julia Cedillos (90 yrs. old) who recently passed away, and for her family's consolation.

For those who are sick and those who are suffering, especially from loss of memory, may they be granted patience and peace.

For Firefighters and First Responders in our country, may God keep and guard them, and bring them back home safe.

For all those affected by the wildfires and flash floods is Ruidoso and Mescalero.

For Vocations: O God, Who wish all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of your truth: send, we beg you, laborers into your harvest, and grant them grace to speak your word with all boldness; so that your word may spread and be glorified, and all nations may know You, the only God, and Him Whom you have sent, Jesus Christ your Son, Our Lord, Who lives and reigns world without end. Amen.

The Sanctuary Candle

Burns to honor the presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament.

In Thanksgiving for prayers said for my health and well-being.

Readings for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading – Ezekiel 2:2-5: God empowers Ezekiel to speak to rebellious Israel, ensuring that whether or not they listen, they will recognize the presence of a prophet among them.

Responsorial Psalm – Psalm 123: We continually look to the Lord for mercy, enduring scorn and arrogance from others, just as servants watch their masters, waiting for compassion.

Second Reading – 2 Corinthians 12:7-10: Paul embraces his weaknesses and hardships, seeing them as opportunities for Christ's power to shine, affirming that divine strength is perfected in human weakness.

Gospel – Mark 6:1-6: Jesus visits Nazareth, where he teaches in the synagogue, but the people reject him, commenting on his lack of status as a local carpenter's son. Jesus is amazed by their lack of faith, and he is only able to heal a few sick people because of their unbelief.

Faith and Rejection

The Gospel reading for the 14th Sunday in Ordinary Time shows Jesus visiting His hometown of Nazareth. Despite His wisdom and miracles, the people reject Him because they see Him as just a carpenter's son. This lack of faith amazes Jesus.

Jesus' experience in Nazareth shows us how important faith is. Even though He had the power to perform miracles, the people's unbelief limited what He could do. This teaches us that our faith plays a crucial role in receiving God's blessings.

Jesus challenges the people with a new way of thinking, and it is just too much for them. God is indeed a person, but perhaps we are also more comfortable with the idea of God than an actual encounter. When we encounter God, we know we might be pushed beyond our current way of thinking, and that is frightening.

We are reminded to have faith in Jesus, even when others doubt or reject Him. Our belief in His power can open the door to His healing and new ways of thinking.

...a thorn was given me in the flesh...

(2 Cor. 12:7)

Nuestra fe solamente será fe, en la medida que se afiance en la relación con un Dios que se revela tanto en nuestra vida como en la de los demás. Un Dios tan cotidiano que sólo puede verse y comprenderse cuando nos dejamos interrogar y asombrar por las maravillas que Él realiza en todos, ya sean grandes o pequeños, amigos o enemigos.

Lo que vivió Jesús en Nazaret se repite a diario, tal como lo expresa el dicho: "nadie es profeta en su tierra". Y pareciera cierto, sin embargo, no podemos conformarnos con eso. El mismo evangelista nos dice que Jesús, al menos, pudo hacer alguna curación sencilla. Algo, y quizás mucho, podremos también hacer nosotros entre los que nos conocen y con quienes compartimos la vida más de cerca.
